Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF)

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, student must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on student's behalf, if individual is a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or is enrolled in a residency program and prepaid all or part of student tuition. Student is not eligible for protection from the STRF and Student is not required to pay the STRF assessment, if student is not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program. It is important that student keep copies of his/her enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school.

Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the:

Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education

1747 N Market Blvd., Suite 225, Sacramento, CA 95834.

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120 days period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120 days period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law, or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF. A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law. However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

CANCELLATION, WITHDRAWAL and REFUND POLICY ### STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Students has the right to cancel or withdraw from course program and obtain a pro-rated refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Refund policy: $250.00 registration fee is non-refundable. In accordance with "Institutions shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later." Withdrawal notification must be received on the first day of class session and/or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance shall be issued a prorated refund as follows: Students who cancel prior to attending class time will be issued a full tuition refund less non-refundable registration fee of $250.00. Students who attend 60% or more of class time will not receive a refund.

The date by which the student must exercise his or her right to cancel or withdraw is as follows:

- Winter 2026: Jan 7th or Jan 14th
- Spring 2026: April 1 or April 7th
- Summer 2026: June 24 or July 1st
- Fall 2026: Sept 16 or Sept 23

Notice of cancellation must be in writing. Date of requested cancellation and/or withdrawal must be included within the cancellation/withdrawal notice. Withdrawal may be affected by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance. If student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

The cancellation or withdrawal notice must be dated and delivered to:

Fire Future LLC, attention Mr. Edward Cook, Jr.,
5494 Arrow Highway, Montclair, CA 91763

or a written notification can be sent via email to: admin@firefuture.com.

Please include: Students email address, students name, date of enrollment, date of requested notice and reason for requesting a refund. Upon review and approval of requested funds, refunds will be submitted within 45 days of receipt of refund request.

LOANS

Fire Future does not offer any loans to pay for any educational program. If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

FINANCIAL AID

Fire Future does not participate in federal and state financial aid programs. If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
2. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance until the loan is repaid.

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION

The transferability of credits you earn at Fire Future is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the certificate you earn in FF EMT-B-I Classroom Version is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the certificate that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer to, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason, the student should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending Fire Future to determine if your certificate will transfer.
